EFFECT OF THE TARIFF

Pennsylvania bituminous coal interests follow New England textile industries in substantial increases of pay to workers, without paying any more attention to the low tariff than a rabbit, as the Ohio State Journal classically expresses it.—Knoxville

THE CONSIDERATE POLICY

Colonel Roosevelt says President Wilson invites war by his timid policy, but there are many, very many people who think that he invites peace by his cautious and considerate policy. If these people were not in a majority we would probably have had a war long ago. The president is consulting the wishes of the people and he finds they are in perfect accord with his own views. It is fortunate that we have that kind of president in these perilous times.
The ordinary issues of politics don't figure these days, and the paramount object is to keep the country out of war, if it is possible to do so. Thus far the president has found it possible, and the universal prayer is that he will keep it up. When this country goes to war, it wants to do so for some real reason and not on frivolous and capricious grounds. This republic is too great to be touched and boastful.—Ohio State Journal.

A BUSINESS PRESIDENT

President Wilson probably will be best known in history as the author of the higher moral law of nations.
His name will be written large in the record of progress of industrial justice. It was the friend of these on the lower rungs of the ladder that came to the White House.

Yet, in giving justice to labor, in bringing about a more equitable distribution of taxation, relieving of their burden those most unable to bear it, and widening the field of opportunity for the younger men, he has been successful in bringing to the United States its greatest era of prosperity.

There are 250,000 corporations in the country, in addition to the banking and railroad corporations. None of these corporations has been harassed or hampered in their successful progress. On the contrary, through the Federal Trade Commission, new facilities and new business improvements have been placed at their disposal.

The business men of the country, for many years have been demanding a tariff commission that would be non-partisan and whose make-up and character would commend itself to the confidence of the business world.

The United States Chamber of Commerce, representing all the chambers of commerce and trade bodies of the United States, has formally approved of the administration's tariff commission bill, introduced by Congressman Rainey, of Illinois.

Recently the report of the Comptroller of the Currency showed that the reserves in the national banks of the country were greater than the reserves in the Bank of England, the Reichsbank of Germany, the Bank of France, the Bank of Russia, the Bank of the Netherlands, the Swiss National Bank and the Bank of Japan —greater than all the reserves of these foreign banks together.

The accumulation of the gold in the United States has reached the value of $2,000,000,000, a greater amount than ever held previously by any two nations together.

America has reached its highest point of prosperity and efficiency under President Wilson. Industrial justice has been advanced without hurt or hindrance to business prosperity. Wages have reached the highest point in the history of the world.

Four years more of President Wilson's leadership will mean four years more of steady progress and prosperity.

sor, but last night your daughter accepted my proposal of marriage. I

SOMETHING AILS JOHN

For twenty-five years Mr. John Begg has posed as the friend of the farmer and farmer's wife. As a Granger he is bound to give some consideration to the wife as well as the husband. If he were free to follow the dictates of his own conscience undoubtedly he would show respect for the farmer's wife in his official position.

But the public mind of Ohio has become so biased that the State Board of Agriculture, of which Mr.
Begg is President, is used as a part of the political machine of the Willis wreck crew.

The board must obey orders no matter how much it may humiliate the ten members.
Mrs. Nesbitt was employed by the State to promote Civic Improvement in Ohio. She lived on a farm. She is a farmer's wife. She has endured all the hardships that go with actual farm life. She was competent.
There is no person in Ohio or any other state better fitted for the work she was doing.

What happened when the Agriculture board went into politics?
Mrs. Nesbitt is the daughter of a Civil War veteran. He is a staunch Republican. He was serving his country on the battlefield before Willis was born. He has an honorable record as a citizen, as a soldier, and as a Republican.

Orders came that Mrs. Nesbitt, the "Farmer's Wife" should be fired and a "City Lady" hired to take her place.
What did Mr. Begg do when these orders came? His Board agreed to hire the "City Lady" to look after the farmer's girls. Mrs. Nesbitt was discharged. The daughter of the Old Soldier was dismissed by the orders of the wreck crew.

Mr. Begg should have resigned before he became a party to such infamy. He above every other member of that Board should have stood by the Farm wife instead of the city lady.

There is no reflection cast on the City Lady. She no doubt is doing good work. But for a quarter of a century Mr. Begg has been paid to stand before audiences and proclaim his friendship for farm life. He should be heartily ashamed of himself every time he faces a country audience in the future. Mrs. Nesbitt belongs to the same political party that Begg and the wreck crew do.

Willis aims to appoint only those who will take his orders and do what dirty work there is to be done. The State of Ohio would have applauded Mr. Begg if he had shown backbone courage and saved the Agriculture Board from the disgrace that has come to it.

If Mrs. Nesbitt was not desirable to the board, some farm wife could certainly be found to take her place.

None of the other Board members has ever stood before the public and pretended to be the friend of the farm wife as Begg has done. He seems to have been willing to lay aside all his conscience and self respect and play the game of the cheap-john politicians who give orders. No excuses or apologies will relieve Mr.
Begg for having double-crossed the Farmer's Wife.

Mrs. Nesbitt now holds a position in Indiana at $1800 per year.—Ottawa Sentinel.

STILL SIGHT FOR OLD TIMES

Some days ago state auditor A. V.
Donahay made a sale of crude oil from state lands at a top notch price.

By holding the oil until the price went up Vic Donahay produced a profit of $5,000 for the state. A few papers like the Mansfield News fell for Willis' dope and took a crack at Vic for making this money for the state. They said: "We think the people would approve the good old way of handling the people's property along conservative lines."

Whereupon the state auditor is moved to recount what the good old way is. It is seen that in the good old days politicians robbed the treasury while officials helped and campaign contributing corporations looted the school lands. Since auditor Dona-hay took hold the robbers and the looters have been driven out and the school land products have turned over a profit of $5,000.

SMITH IS FOR HERRICK

Dr. A. E. Smith is president of the Ohio Northern University at Ada. He is a strong man and a staunch Republican. He has never been known to stoop or approve petty politics.
He has announced that he will vote for Myron T. Herrick for United States Senator. This is a surprise in big political circles. Politicians do not understand it. Willis and his wrecking crew have been working with Daugherty.

Willis shake their heads and say that President Smith and Willis are no longer of the same political mind. It is a well known fact that Ada has ceased to get rid in the face for Willis.

President Smith is no longer working his head off to boost the political fortunes of the discredited governor. The vote on the referendum at Ada in 1915 showed that Willis was no longer a favorite there.

Smith is not to be a party to deals with brewers and political advantage. He is asking every one of his friends to vote for Herrick both in the primary next August and in the November election. This will be a big job to Myron T. Herrick who has given orders to the wreck crew to Daugherty across for Senator.—Ottawa Sentinel.

ANNUAL INCREASE IN TRIBUTE

What is the annual increase in land values of the United States.
The question is answered by Basil M. Manly, who wrote the report of the Commission on Industrial Relations, which our predatory interests would like to have suppressed.

Mr. Manly, in a course of a series of articles on the income tax, declares that it amounted to six billion dollars in the year 1910, and to eight billion dollars in 1914. Yet this enormous increase is almost entirely absent from returns under the income tax. The land monopolists are dodging.

The increment of six billion dollars in land values means an increase in ground rent of about three dollars per head or $15 per family for the United States. Eight billion dollars increase means an increase of $20 a year tribute levied on the average American family by the landlords.

Then instead of requiring the landlords to turn this tribute into the public treasury for public use, the government compels the owners to pay taxes on labor and labor products.

It is time that the workers bestirred themselves to put an end to this situation.

TRIBUTARY AMERICA

The New York legislature and the United States congress are kinder to the government of Great Britain than to the American people. They manage so that Baron Astor, formerly William Waldorf Astor, pays into the British treasury $1,680,000 in taxes derived from his New York tenants.

In regard to this matter the Chicago Tribune, in its issue of April 7, states with truth:

"Baron Astor has no just claim to an income from the United States.
He does nothing for this country. He is being paid for the cleverness and activity of his ancestors and their associates."

Astor is taking advantage of the negligence, or worse, of American law makers. He is legally appropriating ground rent that rightfully beongs to the people of New York.
Every dollar of this should go into the treasuries of New York City, New York State and the United States.
But rather than deprive Astor or what belongs to the American people American legislators impose burdensome taxes on American labor. The British government is taking from him but a small part of what ought to have been taken for the public use in the treasury of the United States.

Baron Astor is by no means the only one drawing an income that should be going into the public treasury. His cousin, Vincent Astor, is doing the same thing. The fact that Vincent has not become an Englishman does not make the tribute which he levies any the less an injury to the American people. And the same applies to every private individual, American citizen or foreigner, who appropriates to his own use land values created by the people. Because these values are privately appropriated, heavy taxes for public purposes are levied upon labor. This wealth producers are forced to pay a second time in taxes what they have already paid in ground rent to private landlords.

The legislators have not the excuse of ignorance for allowing the state of affairs. In New York there has been represented to each successive legislature for many years, a bill to allow the people of New York City to vote on the matter of slightly relieving labor from taxation and taking a little more of the unearned income of the Astors and others.

This bill has been continually defeated. This year a legislative committee, headed by Senator Ogden L. Mills refused to recommend relief of labor.
Senator Mills, himself a beneficiary of the unjust laws that give unearned wealth to the Astors, would not tolerate the slightest lessening of that inequity.

The American people must wake up. Their most dangerous enemy is the group of privileged interests and their legislative tools, who uphold the system that puts publicly earned wealth into private pockets.
